4 additional services by KPMG, KPMG and the Debtors will seek separate retention orders with regard to 5 any such additional agreements.

6 4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the Application and 7 Engagement Agreements, KPMG shall file interim and final fee applications for allowance of 8 compensation and reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the

18 and reimbursement of expenses (the “Orders”). For the avoidance of doubt, KPMG’s fee applications
19 are subject to this Court’s approval.

20 5. Notwithstanding the prior paragraph, the fixed fees payable to KPMG pursuant to the

22 reimbursed pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code in accordance with the terms of the Engagement
23 Agreements, subject to the procedures set forth in the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the

25 pursuant to the standards set forth in section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall not be subject to 26 the standard of review set forth in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, except that the U.S. Trustee may 27 review such compensation under sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Court retains jurisdiction to consider the U.S. Trustee's response or objection to KPMG's interim and final fee applications on all grounds, including, but not limited to, reasonableness pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.
28

6. KPMG shall include in its fee applications, among other things, time records setting forth a summary description of the services rendered by each professional, with the exception of clerical staff, and the amount of time spent on each date by each such individual in rendering services on behalf of the Debtors in one-half hour (0.5) increments.

7. The terms and conditions of the Agreements, as modified by this Order, are approved.

8. The following terms apply during the pendency of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases:

(a) KPMG shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution or reimbursement for services other than those described in the Engagement Agreements and the Application, unless such services and indemnification therefor are approved by the Court;

(b) The Debtors shall have no obligation to indemnify KPMG, or provide contribution or reimbursement to KPMG, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from KPMG's bad faith, self-dealing, breach of fiduciary duty (if any such duty exists), gross negligence or willful misconduct; or (ii) judicially determined (the determination having become final), based on a breach of KPMG's contractual obligations to the Debtor; or (iii) settled prior to a judicial determination as to the exclusions set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) immediately above, but determined by the Court, after notice and a hearing to be a claim or expense for which KPMG should not receive indemnity, contribution or reimbursement under the terms of KPMG's retention by the Debtors pursuant to the terms of the Engagement Agreements and Application, as modified by this Order; and

(c) If, before the earlier of: (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in these Chapter 11 Cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal); and (ii) the entry of an order closing these Chapter 11 Cases, KPMG believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution and/or reimbursement obligations under the Engagement Agreements (as modified by this Order) and Application, including without limitation the advancement of defense costs, KPMG must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to KPMG before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment. This subparagraph (c) is intended only to specify the period of time under which the Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by KPMG for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement, and not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify

KPMG. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by KPMG for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement.

9. The following changes to the Engagement Agreements apply during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases:

- (a) Paragraph 29 of the Master Services Agreement, which provides for limitation of liability between KPMG and the Debtors, is deleted.
- (b) Paragraph 6 of the standard terms and conditions in the Forensic Services Engagement Agreement, which provides for limitation on damages between KPMG and the Debtors, is deleted.

10. Notwithstanding any provision in any engagement letter or agreement between KPMG and PG&E there shall be no limitation on liability in connection with this engagement.

11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Application, any of its attachments, or any engagement letter, KPMG shall not seek reimbursement of any fees or costs arising from the prosecution or defense of any of KPMG's monthly fee statements or fee applications in these bankruptcy cases.

12. KPMG shall provide reasonable advanced notice to the Debtors and the U.S. Trustee, in these Chapter 11 Cases in connection with any increase of the hourly rates listed in the Armstrong Declaration and the U.S. Trustee retains all rights to object to any rate increase on all grounds including, but not limited to, the reasonableness standard provided for in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, and all rates and rate increases are subject to review by the Court.

13. Subject to KPMG's compliance with applicable professional standards in its performance of the Services, KPMG shall use its best efforts to avoid duplication of services provided by any of the Debtors' other retained professionals in these Chapter 11 Cases.

14. To the extent the Application is inconsistent with this Order, the terms of this Order shall govern.

15. During the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, this Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any matters, claims, rights or disputes arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation or enforcement of this Order.
